

The Groundhog Day Song

(to the tune of "Way down yonder in a little bitty pool/Swam a big mama fish and her little fishies, too")

On February 2nd in a tiny little town
I come out of my burrow and take a look around
If I see my shadow I'm as scared as I can be
I say, "Six more weeks of winter," and it's back to bed for me!

But on February 2nd in that tiny little town
When I come out of my burrow and take a look around
If the air is warm and the sky is gray
I know there'll be an early spring. Hurray, hurray, hurray!

The Other Groundhog Day Song

(to the tune of Oh, Susanna!)

Oh I live in Punxsutawney in a burrow in the ground
And on February second I come out and look around.

If it's cloudy, and early spring's foretold
But if I can see my shadow we'll have six more weeks of cold!
